We're at the ready

Your eyes are always changing – and can take on added strain if you use digital devices. Since these changes happen gradually over time, you may not notice new vision problems. And with 1 in 4 kids having an undiagnosed vision problem that could affect their ability to learn* – everyone should get an annual eye exam, even those who don't need vision correction now.

Plus, eye exams are important to your overall health too. Did you know your eye doctor can spot early signs of serious health problems like diabetes, heart disease and of course, eye diseases like cataracts and glaucoma?

Aetna FEDVIP vision plans are now available for military retirees and their families, and active duty military families. Do your health a favor and join one of our plans today to ensure you have coverage in 2019.

Equipped with savings, choices and convenience

Aetna is the brand name used for products and services provided by one or more of the Aetna group of subsidiary companies, including Aetna Life Insurance Company and its affiliates (Aetna). Vision insurance plans are underwritten by Aetna Life Insurance Company (Aetna). Certain claims administration services are provided by First American Administrators, Inc., and certain network administration services are provided through EyeMed Vision Care, LLC ("EyeMed").

This is a brief description of the features of the Aetna Vision Preferred plan. Before making a decision, please read the plan's applicable federal brochure(s). All benefits are subject to the definitions, limitations and exclusions set forth in the federal brochure. EyeMed and Aetna are independent contractors and not employees or agents of each other. Participating vision providers are credentialed by and subject to the credentialing requirements of EyeMed. Aetna does not provide medical/vision care or treatment and is not responsible for outcomes. Aetna does not guarantee access to vision care services or access to specific vision care providers, and provider network composition is subject to change without notice. Discount offers provide access to discounted services and are NOT insured benefits. Lens coverage can be used once every benefit period to purchase either one pair of eyeglass lenses OR contact lenses. Exam coverage and frame coverage can be used once every benefit period. Information is believed to be accurate as of the production date; however, it is subject to change.
